Tempers flare over seawall

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Tempers flared Tuesday night when Bay St. Louis City Council members dove into the issue of a proposed seawall extension north of Bay View Court.

Council agreed to hold a Monday meeting with city staffers involved in various beachfront projects, hoping to clear confusion over the matter. A later meeting presumably will be scheduled with private property owners who live opposite the area at issue.

"I'm real confused about what the heck is going on," said Council member James C. Thriffley III, who branded a memorandum on the topic "ambiguous." Thriffley insisted that council meet with staff to clear the air before inviting the property owners specifically to a session with council.

His distress over the complexity of the issue was shared by councilman Tad Black. "I hate to admit it, but I'm confused over who's doing what," said Black.

The immediate issue council will discuss Monday at 6 p.m. concerns plans by the Corps of Engineers to construct a structure north of Bay View Court to halt the dramatic erosion that area has seen in recent months.

City officials and the Corps are concerned that, if left unchecked, the erosion will advance to Beach Boulevard and cause its collapse.

Private property owners in the area originally brought the issue to council's attention a year ago, when it asked for the city's support in getting federal

Mayor firm on seawall protection

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Bay St. Louis Mayor Eddie Favre said Wednesday the city shouldn't waiver in its support for construction of a "permanent solution" to the eroding shoreline north of Bay View Court.

And, he said, there's no need for confusion over the issue among City Council members.

"Our concern is protecting the beach road," said Favre. Erosion that has eaten several hundred feet from the shoreline in that area continues, he said, "and it's getting worse."

Property owners in the area at question have asked the Corps of Engineers to back off from plans to construct a bulkhead or seawall north of Bay View. Now the Corps wants to know if the city still stands behind the project.

The issue was aired at Tuesday night meeting of City Council, with some council members saying they're "confused" by the status of the project as outlined in a memorandum they were given. A meeting has been set for Monday at 6 p.m. to discuss the issue.

Favre missed Tuesday's meeting due to illness. Wednesday

Foreign trade zone possible

BY SHARON K. SAUCIER
The Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission is looking at the possibility of making the port and airport foreign trade zones.

This would enable companies to bring in their merchandise and fashion it into whatever product they are producing and either export it out of the country, duty free, or in the United States at the rate of the complete product and not the individual components that make the finished good.

Noel Guthrie, with the Mississippi Department of Economic and Community Development, told the commission they have a "very brief window of time" to make a decision as to whether or not they would want to join the Gulfport/Biloxi Foreign Trade Zone.

By joining the Gulfport/Biloxi Foreign Trade Zone, Guthrie told the commission, they would be able to attract more businesses and industries and it would be cheaper and take less time to join the already established zone in Harrison County.

Hancock County would have a difficult, or almost impossible, time establishing a foreign trade zone on its own because the county has to be a port of entry, which Hancock County is not considered. The cost would also be more than $100,000.

Guthrie said the cost of joining the foreign trade zone would be $30,000 and members of the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission would be allowed to sit on the board of directors for the foreign trade zone.

The specified areas the commission is looking at making foreign trade zones are located at Port Bienville and Stennis

Plans for ball field upgrade aired at council

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Bay St. Louis city officials saw plans Tuesday for a $130,000 upgrade of the city's recreation facilities off Athletic Drive.

The project includes construction of several new playing fields for softball and soccer, with additional parking and new storage and concession facilities.

City officials added some ball fields to the complex last year and are continuing to spread fill dirt for additional facilities. While a portion of the work is expected to be completed by the fall, the project is being constructed in a phased manner.

Parks and Playgrounds director Frank Perniciaro said the complex ultimately will feature additional lighting, fencing and underground wiring.

In other business Tuesday, council amended, and accepted, a contract between the city and the Bay St. Louis Development Foundation. Action on the pact had been postponed earlier this month to allow council and the city attorney time to propose changes in the contract.

Under the plan, the city will pay some expenses of the non-profit foundation for helping develop the downtown and highway commercial districts and the depot area as well. In

Highway 90 construction

Heavy equipment and hardhats abound along Highway 90, as builders put together new retail and hotel accommodations. Bay House Inn, top, is scheduled to open March 1 in Bay St. Louis, featuring 128 rooms with kitchenette facilities. The two-story inn is near the intersection of Highway 90 and Drinkwater Boulevard. The middle picture shows how Pass Christian Village takes shape on Highway 90 between Henderson and Clarence Avenues. It is expected to open April 1, with a Delchamps grocery, Big "B" Drug Store, Sub-Way sandwich shop and a cinema. ## Gas company plans new monitoring for Bay

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Officials of Koch-Gateway Pipeline Co. have reassured Bay St. Louis city officials the company plans to make up the city's financial losses from last week's natural gas system shutdown.

In a recent letter to Mayor Eddie Favre, the firm also promised to upgrade a key valve that was left in the "closed" position, shutting off all service to the city.

In addition, the company is promising to install an alarm and monitoring system, to avert similar incidents in the future.

The letter was given to council members Tuesday, although a clear explanation of the near-disaster's cause is yet to be offered. City gas customers lost all service Jan. 11, prompting an around-the-clock scramble by city employees to shut off every gas meter in the city and restore service.

Once the valve problem was corrected, city workers had to reopen every gas meter, and turn on customer pilot lights.

Favre said Wednesday investigation of the incident so far points to a combination of mechanical and human error.

City Council members Tuesday lauded the Public Works Department and city staff generally for dedicated response to the crisis.

And while council members were reassured on the prospect that the city would be reim-

Thoughts for meditation:
 Hope — that bubbling ingredient in life, which is like carbonation in a drink; giving it zest, keeping it in motion, always pushing it up...

addition, the foundation will oversee various promotional activities for area businesses.

The city will provide a part-time staffer to help.

In revising the basic pact Tuesday, council deleted a statement that named the foundation as the city's official representative "for any and all activities within the Main Street and Depot areas."

All planned activities approved by the foundation must be submitted to the mayor and council one week prior to any regularly scheduled council meeting, and the foundation is to submit monthly requests for reimbursable expenses.

In other matters, council:

—Was briefed by representatives of "Highway and Byways Ministries" on plans to establish a soup kitchen somewhere in Hancock County. Council wasn't asked to support the operation financially, but was asked for ideas on where the soup kitchen could establish itself.

—Accepted a bid of $12,230 by Blanchard Construction Co., to install five new insulated windows in City Hall Annex on Court Street. The new windows will match those already existing at the former savings and loan building.

—Advised Jourdan River Isles residents that upon annexation, their property would have no zoning status until City Council takes action.

City Attorney John Scaife said in all likelihood the city would zone the subdivision as R-1 (single family residential), since that's the existing use.

The subdivision has petitioned to annex into the city limits, and a meeting between the county Board of Supervisors and City Council is set for tonight at 6 p.m., at the Courthouse, concerning the petition.

International Airport.

Guthrie said one of the drawbacks to joining the foreign trade zone is that the commission would see no direct monetary benefits, but it would bring jobs and industry to the county.

The commission must decide within the next few weeks whether or not they will join. Commission members and the Hancock County Board of Supervisors are expected to meet on Jan. 26 to discuss the possibility further.

permission to fill in the eroded portions of their property, east of the roadway.

Later, the city included the area in its own plans to pump a sand berm along the downtown waterfront — a project that has stalled in recent weeks. And in light of the Corps' seawall project, the city has dropped the area north of Bay View Court from its berm project.

The Corps put the unprotected Bay View Court area in the federal hopper as an "emergency" project, and wants to proceed to build a permanent structure protecting the roadway.

Exactly where that structure will be built, however, is a bone of contention. The Corps and the Secretary of State will draw that line — forever defining a division of public and private property. Anything east of the line will become public property, although it may have been attached to the private property owners' tracts prior to erosion.

The Corps recently received a petition from the property owners asking that the project be aborted altogether.

And the Corps now wants to know if the city still blesses the project, despite the property owners' objections.

Clouding the issue is the question of whether the city of the county will act as the official "sponsor" of the program, picking up the tab for 20 percent of its cost.

The memorandum that council saw Tuesday was issued by Les Fillingame to Mayor Eddie Favre on Tuesday. Neither the mayor nor Fillingame were at the meeting to elaborate on the issues.

Fillingame, who has spearheaded beachfront renewal efforts for the city, said Corps officials want to have the city's position on the issues as soon as possible.

Fillingame said the Corps has reached the point that the project must move forward or be terminated. And, he said, the Corps wants to know whether the city or the county plans to supply the local matching funds for the project.

Municipal Clerk Kay Johnson said Favre wants to hold a meeting with the property owners and the Corps on Monday to resolve the matter.

Thrilliley said he didn't want to have such a session until city staffers have clarified issues surrounding the project, and related Corps plans to build revetments and bulkheading along other portions of the existing seawall. Council member Thomas M. Favre said he'd also like an update on the status of the city's sand beach renewal project.

The 6 p.m. session Monday is open to the public, at City Hall Annex.

bursed for such costs as overtime and materials, they raised questions over the company's position on compensating area businesses that lost revenues during the service disruption.

Municipal Clerk Kay Johnson said the firm had not outlined a policy on that to the city, although she said the company clearly has expressed a desire to be "reasonable" in assuming responsibility for the incident.

day, however, he noted that City Council had joined with property owners a year ago when they were seeking permits to protect the shoreline.

The city's original concern — danger to Beach Boulevard's integrity — hasn't changed, said the mayor. "Originally, everybody supported it," Favre said of initial plans to shore up the shoreline.

It's only the Corps' proposal to install a permanent structure in the area, he said, that has caused the private property owners concern that they may lose title to some former property footage, he added.

"I don't really know what else needs to be aired," he said of the upcoming meeting among councilmen, the mayor and city staffers.

"To me, it's a simple question: Does council stand by its resolution of Feb. 25 endorsing shoreline protection measures? To me, that's not too hard to understand."

"CUEVAS" QUOTES

By Ellis C. Cuevas

I am happy to say the Waveland Animal Shelter reports all the dogs on the photo page in our January 8 issue were adopted or reclaimed.

Thanks go to those who adopted or reclaimed the dogs, as well as to the pets' sponsors.

The Waveland Animal Shelter usually has a good selection of dogs and cats available for adoption.

The shelter is located on Gulfside Drive, Waveland, next to the fire station.

If you have lost a pet or would like to adopt one, they will be happy if you gave them a call.

Even if they do not have the specific breed of a dog or cat you are seeking, they may be able to locate one for you at a later date to adopt.

Those working at the shelter would like to place every healthy animal they receive with a new owner.

By the way, a special thanks goes to our 21 sponsors. They have made some animals very happy along with their new owners.

The Animal Shelter's number is 467-0230. They may have just that dog or cat you have been wanting to adopt for a long time.

The buzz of planes landing and taking off can once again be heard from the Stennis International Airport in Hancock County.

The resurfacing of the runway and expansion of parking areas for visiting airplanes has been completed.

With the re-opening of the airport, Air Nevada is beginning a new service of junket flights into Stennis. Air Nevada's flights are set at one plane per weekend for three weeks and then increase the numbers until it is 10 per weekend.

Casino Magic and Jubilee will also be returning with their patron flights.

Casino Magic, with its new 201-room inn now open, plans about one flight a day during January and is expected to double that rate next month. With the Magic Inn in operation, patrons will be staying longer in town, and this will give them time to visit some of our local merchants about town.

Jubilee has told airport officials they expect to be using a flight a day starting in February.

It appears the air traffic at Stennis Airport is increasing, and this will mean more revenue for the county and community.

Economic development is something everyone is concerned about, and the expansion at Stennis Airport means more jobs throughout the area.

Keep up the good work, folks.

The Krewe of Nereids is once again preparing for one of their beautiful parades, and this year it will be on Sunday, Feb. 19.

You have an opportunity of participating in the parade, too.

Entries are sought for floats, dancers and marching or community groups to join Nereids for the Mardi Gras parade.

The ladies of Nereids go to extreme lengths to prepare for this parade and have one of the best parades along the Coast.

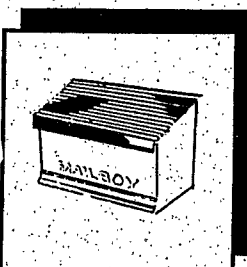

Deadline for entries is Sunday, Feb. 5. You can call 467-7635, or visit the Nereids office at 245 Coleman Avenue in Waveland to get a form.

Remember, this will be the 29th year for Nereids to roll in Waveland.

Staehe residence

This was the residence of the William A. Staehe family of Bay St. Louis located at the intersection of Beach Boulevard and St. Charles Street. The family sold the home, and it was later destroyed by Hurricane Camille in 1969. The concrete slab of the front porch is the only thing remaining. Charles Staehe, son of the late owner, said his father had the home built circa 1928. His father was the owner of a shoe store, a restaurant, and was a New Orleans Times Picayune distributor. They will be returned to their owners.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

'Hospitality City' unknown by Waveland police

Dear Editor,

I read in The Sea Coast Echo the other day that someone wants Waveland to be known as the Hospitality City. Before this can be they are going to have to teach their policemen to be more courteous and hospitable.

I was stopped by one of Waveland's finest the other night. Whenever I'm stopped I get out of the car to show I'm not armed or pose a threat. We met at the rear of my car.

His first words were, "Have you been drinking?" I told him I did not drink alcoholic beverages, but anybody with any sense could have seen that. Then he said, "Stand behind your car." I could tell by the expression on his face he was expecting me to go for my gun.

Then another Waveland policeman pulled up with a three-foot flashlight and started searching my car. I guess they were looking for drugs. An old man like me, if he took a snort of cocaine or a few puffs on a marijuana cigarette it would probably kill me.

Then a third policeman pulled up and parked on the median. There were three police cars with their blue lights flashing and me. The passers-by slowed down. It must have looked like a drug bust on an illegal border crossing.

The officer that stopped me asked me again, "Have you been drinking?" He either had bad eyesight or he doesn't know what drunks looks like. Anyone could see I hadn't been drinking.

He told me when I was stopped at the red light at Nicholson and 90 I was parked on the center line. I didn't know this was a crime. He said I was swerving when he followed. That was not true. I might have been drifting, but I wasn't swerving.

He wrote me a ticket for reckless driving. I've made arrangements to have it dropped because it was unfounded.

You give some people a badge and a gun and you better run for cover.

There's an award for America's Best Cop. If they had one for the worst cop, the leading candidate is a member of the Waveland Police Department.

Sincerely,
Art Elkins

Reader feels caning is not just slap on bottom

To the Editor:

A state senator wants caning! Absurd! Caning is not a slap on the bottom, it's a cane soaked in brine to make it limber, and it cuts like a straight razor. One missed stroke results in paralysis or a rupture of the testicles.

Does the good senator plan on caning women as well?

This is the United States of America. This is not Nazi Germany. This is not some crummy third-world dictatorship.

America is a nation of justice, not mindless brutality.

The state of Mississippi has laws to deal with crime, and they don't include torture.

Enough of this cruel talk. Enough of this talk for a new barbarism!

Sincerely,
Tom Fulcher

Comprehensive Plan needs checking says association president

To the Editor:

Over the past few months, your newspaper's coverage of developments in the comprehensive planning process for the City of Bay St. Louis has been exemplary.

The coverage of the CSX crossing controversy, of various zoning matters, and of the sand beach renourishment project has also been excellent.

The reports of follow-up interviews with city and state officials and employees have been particularly helpful in clarifying information gathered at meetings of the City Council and Planning and Zoning Commission.

It is hoped that this series of articles has made it clear to the citizens of Bay St. Louis that the Comprehensive Plan will stand as the document upon which zoning ordinances and planning decisions will be based for the next 20 to 25 years.

All residential neighborhoods and businesses will be affected as well the growth of the city's infrastructure.

The Bay St. Louis Community Association has serious questions regarding some of the proposed future land uses and thoroughfare projections.

We would encourage citizens of Bay St. Louis to study the plan, including the large future land use map on display at the City Hall Annex.

Now is the time to voice questions and concerns to the City Administration, City Council, and Planning and Zoning Commission.

Hopefully, residents will follow future articles in your publication to keep informed on future developments and will attend the mandated hearings prior to adoption of the Comprehensive Plan.

Sincerely yours,
Dorothy McLemore, Chairman
Bay St. Louis
Community Association

FROM THE MISSISSIPPI HOUSE

By Representative
J.P. Compretta

Second week of Legislature shows increase in committee work

The emphasis was largely on committee work in the House of Representatives during the past week with legislators focusing on such diverse issues as economic development, boating safety and proposed revisions in the Motor Vehicle Financial Responsibility law.

There was a sharp increase in committee work as legislators prepared for the first big deadline of the session. Monday, Jan. 16, was the last day for introduction of general bills and constitutional amendments.

The cutoff did not apply to appropriations or revenue bills. More than 1,000 bills and resolutions had been introduced in the House by the end of the past week and the number continues to increase each day.

A proposal to tighten the state's Motor Vehicle Financial Responsibility law and hopefully reduce the number of uninsured drivers on Mississippi highways was among the first bills sent to the House calendar for floor action.

A similar bill, recommended by the Insurance Committee, was passed by the House last year but died in a House-Senate conference committee in the closing days of the 1994 session.

The Senate has passed its own version of the Financial Responsibility bill, but differences between the two chambers will have to be reconciled before the legislation goes to the Governor.

Among other things, the bill approved by the House Insurance Committee provides for a $1,000 fine against any motorist who causes an accident in which the damage to others' property exceeds $500 and the driver fails to show financial responsibility.

The fine would be in addition to suspending the driver's license and/or registration as currently authorized by law. In addition, the bill boosts the extent of property damage for determining when accident reports must be filed with the Highway Patrol from $250 to $500; changes the number of days allowed to file reports; and makes a number of other technical changes in the existing law.

Under the House proposal, no changes would be made in the minimum amounts of liability insurance necessary to show financial responsibility, which would remain at $10,000 for bodily injury or death in an accident, $20,000 for bodily injury or death to two or more people, and $5,000 for property damage.

Other bills awaiting floor action in the House included a measure to establish attempted murder as a separate offense under the state's criminal laws, a proposal to extend the laws creating the Department of Health to the year 2001, and increase to $200 the amount paid by a mortgagee for failing to cancel a mortgage or deed of trust after full payment of debts.

The House approved a bill to correct a Code reference in an old law concerning finance charges under a revolving charge agreement.

Officials from the Department of Economic and Community Development (DECD) conferred with the Ways and Means Committee regarding their legislative recommendations, including a series of bills to promote future growth of the telecommunications industry. If enacted, the bills would extend certain tax exemptions and jobs tax credits to the telecommunications industry, and specify criminal and civil penalties for the theft of telecommunications services and devices.

Other DECD legislation would encourage revitalization of railroads and railroad yards; support expansion of the Port of Gulfport; and provide an increase in bonding authority for several on-going economic programs.

Governor Kirk Fordice, in his annual State-of-the-State address, commended the Legislature for its role in Mississippi's economic success and restoring fiscal responsibility in state government.

"We have given Mississippi virtually every tool for economic development a state can have," he said. As expected, the Governor devoted a large portion of the 35-minute speech to his 1995 legislative program — an income tax to be phased in over the next three years, statewide expansion of the "Work First" welfare reform project implemented initially on a pilot basis, truth-in-sentencing for people

IN AND AROUND DIAMONDHEAD

By Margaret Williamson

AUDITIONS

Auditions for the Diamondhead Players' next production, "Nite Court," (in May) will be Tuesday, Jan. 24 at 10:30 a.m. at the country club. This musical calls for adults and children — Diamondhead residents only, please.

Sponsorship for this group is $5 a year. Please call Doris Gendusa for more information at 255-7413.

FUND RAISER FOR ALZHEIMERS

The Diamondhead Women's Club is having an art exhibit Saturday, March 11 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. to benefit Alzheimers research.

Limited to fine arts, the exhibit will feature watercolor, oil, acrylic, ink, sculpture and mixed media — no crafts please.

Diamondhead has lots of talented folks, who we hope will participate in this show, and all artists along the Coast are welcome.

This will be the first event of this kind for the women's club, and they are hoping it will be a success and become an annual show for a good cause.

TICKETS ON SALE

Tickets are on sale at Diamondhead Discount Drugs and at the door the night of the performance of "Last Call for Mardi Gras," a production brought to you by the Diamondhead Performing Arts Society.

The show stars Neil and Kitty Stallings and some of the casts from both of their original musicals "Fat Tuesday" and "Last Call." You'll be tapping your feet and clapping your hands as these multi-talented folks present this country rock musical extravaganza. Tickets are $12.50 for adults and $3.50 for students.

IT'S KING CAKE TIME

Diamondhead's Mardi Gras festivities are off to a good start. Those "wild and crazy" newcomers, Shirley Blanchflower, Gloria Gasper, Phil Gillen, Doris Gendusa (to name a few) all in great costume, honored their "Queen for a Day" Mrs. Joseph (Eleanor) Donahue who was radiant with her crown and scepter, as were her ladies-in-waiting, Mrs. Christine Sauter and Ms. Nell Seeghers.

The royal ladies were elegantly escorted around the floor and curtsied to by their subjects at the country club Mardi Gras luncheon Jan. 6.

Mrs. Boyan Leshin, president, read the origin of the King Cake, the decorations of purple, green and gold, and those marvelous carousels on the tables put all who attended in the carnival spirit.

MORE MARDI GRAS

Last Friday the 13th was not an unlucky day for Mrs. Norton Downie. The queen-elect "Terri" was honored by the Krewe of Kamehameha ladies of the Diamondhead Boaters Association at a "Queen's Luncheon" at the country club.

The group presented her a beautiful crystal rose bowl. Her Majesty and King Harold Turner will celebrate their coronation at the ball Saturday, Jan. 21 at the club.

DEADLINE

All checks for the Diamondhead Community Association dinner meeting Friday, Feb. 5

Diamondhead Players announce auditions

at 6:30 p.m. must be received Friday, Jan. 21.

There will be an election of new board members, president Bill Gudritz's remarks, and Charles Gray, president of the Hancock County Historical Society will be guest speaker.

This should be an interesting meeting with a good dinner at $11 a person.

Support your community. Make your reservations, and $10 per family dues please.

THOUGHTS TO SHARE

If we might have a second chance to live the days once more, and rectify mistakes we've made to even up the score.

If we might have a second chance to use the knowledge gained, perhaps we might become at last as fine as God ordained.

But though we can't retrace our steps however stands the score; tomorrow brings another chance for us to try once more.

Have a great tomorrow and a wonderful week.

Clerks trained

Justice Court Clerk Liz Cook, left, and Marie Klein, deputy clerk, attended the annual fall training seminar for Mississippi Justice Court Clerks. The legislatively mandated education program in Jackson was coordinated by the Mississippi Judicial College, a division of the University of Mississippi Law Center and the designated agent to provide continuing court education.

Broccoli, so many ways

soup, undiluted
1 roll garlic cheese (or Jalapeno cheese)
1 stick butter or margarine
1 large onion, chopped
1 small toe garlic, chopped
Pepper, salt to your taste

Cook the broccoli till soft, incidentally breaking all of my fresh vegetable rules against overcooking! Drain. Melt the butter or margarine, and saute the onion and garlic pieces until quite limp (the vegetables, not the cook).

While all this is still hot, melt the cheese, then add the remaining ingredients, mixing well. Serve with corn chips or such, keeping the dip warm in a chafing dish or other food warmer.

I like to sprinkle this dish with cayenne pepper, even though the combination is already "hot-hot" — but, then I also like sprinkles of cayenne over homemade vanilla custard ice-cream, an old Creole treat!

Another of my favorite broccoli recipes is:

BROCCOLI-CHICKEN CASSEROLE

2 cups cubed chicken
2 cups chopped fresh broccoli, briefly steamed
1/2 cup chopped onions
1/2 cup sliced mushrooms
1 Tbsp. butter or margarine
1 can cream of mushroom

USM students plan King vigil tonight

University of Southern Mississippi students will hold a candlelight vigil march today as part of a Dr. Martin Luther King Memorial Day Celebration.

The observance, sponsored by the Afro-American Student Organization and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc. will get under way at 6:30 p.m. with the candlelight march from the campus Hub to the Polymer Science Research Center.

The 7 p.m. program will feature remarks by Eddie Holloway, USM assistant dean of students and a member of the Hattiesburg City Council. He has served at USM since 1979 as a Counseling Center staff member and psychology instructor.

COOKING UP A STORM

By Katy McGuire
Caire

Broccoli, to my way of thinking, is among the most versatile of vegetables, and quite tasty as well, and I use it often in many ways.

Simplest, of course, is raw, either in salad or as a major part of the appetizer tray, with a spicy dip. Broccoli is also delicious when sauteed in a bit of olive oil, accented with lemon slices or juice and a little chopped onion or garlic. It's also delicious when ever-so-briefly steamed with a little butter and seasonings of your choice, or baked in a cream or cheese sauce.

It's also a good "bed" for creamed dishes, such as ham or chicken a la king, that long-time buffet table standby dish. I like to serve this almost oystery-tasting dip:

MOCK OYSTER DIP

This actually has an oyster-like taste, a good dip; and may also be used as a "side dish" when baked in a casserole or in individual shells or other dishes, or spooned into patty shells, or even, as one cook of my acquaintances does, spooned over spaghetti! And here's the way:

1 1/2 cups chopped fresh broccoli (or 1 pkg. frozen chopped broccoli)

1/2 cup fresh mushrooms, coarsely chopped and briefly sauteed (or small can of mushrooms — pieces and stems)

1 can cream of mushroom

Coats resigns as PRCC head football coach

Pearl River Community College head football coach and athletic director Willie J. Coats has resigned to accept a position as head coach at East Central Community College in Decatur, Miss.

"It was a real tough decision to make," said Coats. "I made the decision on my own. No one asked me to leave, but I felt that the move would be a good move for my family."

"I lived in Decatur for nine years, and I love the town and I love the school," said Coats. "I have a lot of friends and a lot of family there."

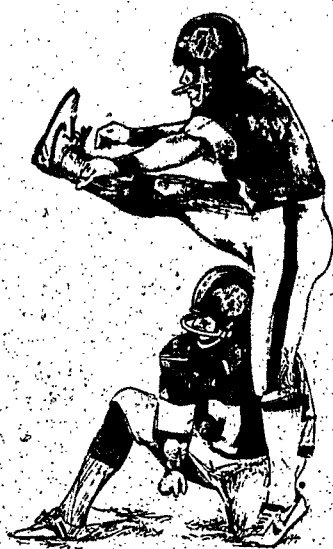

Coats, who took over on June 1, 1991 to become PRCC's sixth coach since 1948, succeeded Mike Nelson as head football coach at Pearl River. Coats led the Wildcats to four winning seasons in four years. He recorded three 6-4 seasons and one 10-0 regular season. That undefeated season was the second 10-0 regular season in the college's history.

He also led the Wildcats to a South Division championship, two second place finishes and one third place finish in the division.

Coats became an assistant football coach at East Central in 1970 and took over as head coach and athletic director there in 1976. He was the head coach at Hattiesburg High School from 1986 until 1991.

"I couldn't ask for anybody to be any better than Dr. Alexander in supporting me and our athletic program here at Pearl River," Coats added. "And I wish all Pearl River athletic programs and the athletes and coaches continued success in the years to come."

Pearl River Community College has immediately begun its search process for a head football coach. Applications are now available by calling the PRCC President's Office at (601) 795-1201.

Rocks shutout Crusaders 6-0

Cannon sets record

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
The St. Stanislaus soccer team recorded a win and recognized a record on Tuesday night at the Brother Philip Memorial Stadium.

The Rocks shut out the Mercy Cross Crusaders 6-0 and Brad Cannon set a record for most goals scored in a career.

Cannon scored his 12th and 13th goals of this season and broke the SSC record for most goals scored in a career.

The previous record of 52 goals was set by Konstantine

Koloskov in 1993. Koloskov scored all 52 of his goals in one season with the Rocks. Koloskov is now a sophomore soccer player with the University of Notre Dame in Indiana which reached the NCAA championships this year.

Cannon tied the record with his 12th goal and set the record with his 13th goal of the season.

The Rocks led at halftime 3-0 with Jeremy Compretta scoring first for the Rocks. Cannon scored his record-tying goal to give the Rocks a 2-0 lead. Casey Swanson scored the third goal of the half for the Rocks.

Brooks Quinlan added a goal in the second half to make the score 4-0. Swanson scored his second goal of the night to extend the Rocks' lead to 5-0 and then Cannon scored the record breaking goal and set the final score for the Rocks' victory at 6-0.

SSC goalkeeper David Matheson recorded his second straight shutout for the Rocks. He received considerable defensive help from Matt Tusa, Leo Laurent and Robbie Morrison.

Pirates take two from Eagles in jr. high action

The Pass Christian seventh/eighth grade boys defeated St. John while the girls fell to the Lady Eagles. The ninth grade boys narrowly squeaked by the Eagles of St. John.

In seventh/eighth grade girls' action, the Lady Eagles defeated the Lady Pirates 36-33 in a close game.

Kysha Dedeaux scored 18 points to lead the Lady Pirates. Robyn Lewis added 13 points in the loss that dropped the Lady Pirates record to 8-3 on the season.

In the seventh/eighth grade boys' action, the Pirates handed the Eagles a 40-25 loss. Kentrell Bell canned 17 points to lead Pass Christian. Shawn Necaise added 13 points in the win. With the win, the boys record was upped to 6-6 on the season.

McGuinness' seven 3's crush PRC

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
The St. Stanislaus Rock-chaw basketball team got a record setting performance from senior David McGuinness on Tuesday night against the Pearl River Central Blue Devils in Carriere.

The Rocks crushed the Blue Devils 98-68 behind the hot hand of McGuinness, who hit seven 3's in the game and finished with a game and career high 23 points. The seven 3's are a record in the Jay Ladner era at SSC. Vince Moran and Brandon Benoit each hit six 3's at some point in their career. However, the all-time St. Stanislaus record for most three-pointers in a game was set by point guard Yasin Shabazz in 1988 under then-coach Chuck Genin. Shabazz hit eight 3's in a game against East Central in 1988 en route to a 27-point performance.

The Rocks hit eight three-pointers against Pearl River Central on Tuesday. Brandon Benoit nailed the lone remaining three-pointer for the Rocks.

It was a run-and-gun offense that showed up for the Rocks. SSC took a 49-38 halftime lead over PRC. In the second-half, the Rocks just outpaced the Blue Devils and played unselfish ball.

The Rocks had five players in double figures. Leading the way was McGuinness with 23 points. Terry Lawyer, Vince Moran and Brian Thigpen each scored 12 points. Brandon Benoit added 11 points with 4 steals. Terry Lawyer grabbed 8 rebounds in the contest. Nate Middleton dished out 7 assists in the win.

Desmond Robinson scored 20 points to lead the Blue Devils. James Smith added 18 points, while Michael Robinson contributed 13 points in the loss.

Coach Ladner stated, "I thought it was a good win for us after dropping two straight division losses. We played very unselfish ball, which is apparent by five players in double figures."

He continued, "We went with a different lineup. Al Terrell started in place of Terry Lawyer and did a good job for us. Our guards did a good job of running the offense as we had the lowest turnover total of the season. We had only 11 turnovers in the game. David McGuinness just shot the lights out of the gym."

With the win the Rocks improve to 15-9 overall and 5-3 in the division.

In the early game, the JV Rocks defeated the Blue Devils 68-38. Correy Gex led all scorers with 16 points. He was followed by Matt Roth with 12 points.

The Rocks play host to the Hancock Hawks in a cross-county and Division 8 Class 4A matchup on Friday in the Brother Peter Memorial Gym.

SSC shuts out Eagles 6-0

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II

In JV action, the Rocks defeated the Eagles 7-2. Justin Wadsworth and Patricio Ramirez scored two goals each for the Rocks. John Ours, Timmy Kingston, and Luis Barocio scored one goal each for the JV Rocks.

In varsity action, the Rocks shut out the Eagles 6-0. This is the Rocks' third shutout in a row. Brad Cannon pushed his career goal total to 55 by scoring two goals in the contest. Jeremy Compretta and Kile Foster scored two goals each, also.

The SSC/Bay High soccer game that was cancelled last week will be replayed on January 25 at 6:30pm at SSC field. Members of the BAYS league who wear their jersey to the game will receive free admission to the game. The parents of these players will also receive free admission if the child wears his/her jersey.

Pirates split with Eagles

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
The Pass Christian Pirates split with the St. John Eagles in high school basketball action on Tuesday night. The St. John girls defeated the Pass High girls in overtime 71-61. The Pass High boys downed the high flying Eagles 79-60.

In girls' action, the Lady Eagles outpaced the Lady Pirates in the overtime period 18-8 to take the ten point win.

The Lady Eagles held a slight one point lead at half time lead 30-29 but that quickly evaporated as the Pirates mounted a third period defensive stand.

Caron Acosta led the Lady Eagles with 19 points and 6 steals in the win. Ellen Underwood scored 17 point and had 5 steals while Eleanor Ramos added 15 points and dished out 4 assists.

Ebony Midcalf contributed 14 points and grabbed 17 rebounds. Shelley Morrow hit the boards hard with 13 rebounds.

Mandy Theobald scored 18 points in the loss for the Pirates. She was followed by Michelle Bowser with 17 points and Jessica Oldenberg added 12 points.

Kiley Ladner rounded out double figure scoring for Pass Christian with 10 points.

The Lady Eagles improve to 17-6 overall and 7-2 in the district.

In boys' action, the Pirates used a 26-15 run in the third period to seal the victory.

The Pirates held a 40-28 lead at the half. Willie James scored 28 points, grabbed 13 rebounds, and had 5 steals to lead the Pirates to victory. Rickey Lewis scored 18 points and Kevin Clark added 11 points in the win for the Pirates.

GCRL's sea camp dates set

Pre-registration is underway for the 1995 session of Project Marine Discovery Sea Camp at Gulf Coast Research Laboratory's J. L. Scott Marine Education Center and Aquarium in Biloxi.

Eight one-week sessions are scheduled for children ages 6 to 12 — June 5-9, June 12-16, June 19-23, June 26-30, July 3-7, July 10-14, July 17-21 and July 24-28.

Additionally, the June 19-23, June 26-30 and July 3-7 sessions will be open to 13- and 14-year-olds as well.

A charge of $125 for ages 9-14 and $110 for ages 6-8 covers instructional costs and materials, transportation and admission fees. Discounts are offered for three or more family members. Campers provide their own lunches, snacks and drinks.

Sea Camp, initiated in 1988 by GCRL and the Mississippi-Alabama Sea Grant Consortium, uses boat trips, field excursions, hikes, films, art and crafts, laboratory demonstrations, films, aquarium tours and hands-on activities to acquaint young people with the marine environment and coastal resources.

Last summer, nearly 1,100 children from 25 states and Brazil participated in Sea Camp. Because of the program's popularity with children from other areas, local parents are encouraged to register their children as soon as possible.

Sea Camp is one component of GCRL's Project Marine Discovery, recognized in 1993 as the nation's top program in the area of marine and coastal resource protection by Renew America, a non-profit organization which identifies, verifies and promotes environmental initiatives.

For more information, call the Marine Education Center and Aquarium at 374-5550.

Isle of Capri Casino Crowne Plaza Resort to open in June

Officials at the Isle of Capri Casino-Biloxi announced Wednesday the selection of Crowne Plaza Resorts as the franchise name and Ocean Hospitality Ltd. as the management company for its hotel currently under development.

The Isle of Capri Casino Crowne Plaza Resort, which is scheduled to open in June, will be the largest hotel-franchise ever in the state of Mississippi. Offering close to 400 rooms, the 15-floor resort will include such amenities as an on-site health club with massage service, pool, concierge floor, multiple restaurants and lounges, 100 percent guest satisfaction guarantee and more than 15,000 square feet of meeting space. The theme and decor will remain consistent with the casino's unique Caribbean-style atmosphere.

Crowne Plaza Resorts, which was formerly an up-scale division of Holiday Inn Worldwide, branched into an independent brand in September 1994. The move was made by the parent company, Bass PLC, as a new branding strategy for operations in the Americas, Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

The franchise however maintains connections as part of the Holiday Inn Worldwide organization, including participation in the company's Holiday System — a Holiday Inn international reservation service responsible for booking over 24 million rooms last year.

"All of us at Holiday Inn Worldwide are delighted to welcome the Isle of Capri development to our line of Crowne Plaza Resorts," said Mike Leven, president and chief operating officer of Holiday Inn Worldwide.

"Crowne Plaza and Casino America Inc. both enjoy fine reputations in our industry, and we look forward to seeing this Crowne Plaza Resort become another major drawing card on the growing Gulf Coast."

Also announced at Wednesday's press conference was the appointment of Ocean Hospitality Ltd. as the management company for the Isle of Capri Crowne Plaza Resort.

The Florida-based company currently manages several Marriotts, Holiday Inns, Sheratons, Hampton Inns and others throughout the nation.

"We are pleased to be associated with two strongly respected and progressive organizations. The Isle of Capri's hotel will add a new level of accommodations to the Mississippi Gulf Coast and provide the much needed rooms for extended-stay visitors to our area."

"As the first casino in the South, we have watched the Coast evolve into a total destination for travelers with a steadily improving economic base; we feel by bringing in a Crowne Plaza we are contributing to the positive direction of our home-town's growth," said Isle of Capri Casino general manager Tim Hinkley.

The Isle of Capri Casino-Biloxi has been a leader in Mississippi gaming since opening its doors Aug. 1, 1992. The Isle is owned by Casino America Inc., the parent company of three Isle of Capri Casinos, and is publicly traded on NASDAQ.

A small, contained maintenance closet fire was the cause of a temporary closing at the Palace Casino late Monday night.

Tippy O'Bryant Sr., vice president for the Palace Casino, said, "Thanks to the Palace Casino's state-of-the-art fire detection system, damage to the facility was kept to a minimum since the sprinkler system automatically activated."

"Along with the fire detection, the fire system assisted in avoiding any injuries that could have potentially occurred."

The fire was completely contained within the confines of the maintenance closet. Shortly after clearance from the Mississippi Gaming Commission, the fire marshal of the City of Biloxi issued its permission for the Palace Casino to reopen for business.

Two essay winners to earn trip to D.C.

Coast Electric Power Association has an opportunity for high school juniors which will send two local students to Washington in June.

The Youth Tour essay contest is now accepting entries from 11th graders who reside in Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River counties.

Contest coordinator Ida Macuick said, "Students simply need to write an 500-800-word essay explaining how they would provide a service through a cooperative-type business."

Past contest entries proposed a variety of interesting and practical new businesses. One student wrote about organizing a shrimpers' marketing cooperative; another explored the benefits of a student-worker credit union; and others wrote about starting companies like a baby sitting co-op, a medical clinic and even a water service for rural areas.

In addition to being selected for the Washington, D.C. trip, students will also participate in the Youth Leadership Seminar sponsored by the Electric Power Associations of Mississippi.

The two-day seminar will include visiting the state capital and meeting with the members of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

The Washington Youth Tour is coordinated each year by the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association (NRECA). Local winners will join more than 1,000 other delegates from all across the nation for an all-expense paid week in the nation's capital.

Students will participate in seminars on government, rural electrification and cooperatives. They will also tour historical sites and meet with the members of their Congressional district.

Deadline for entries is Feb. 24. For further details, contact Ida Macuick, Youth Tour coordinator, Coast Electric Power Association at 467-6535 or outside Hancock County, 1-800-642-3348.

Red Cross blood supply needs help

Less than two weeks into the new year and many of us already are beginning to take a hard look at the resolutions we made. Human nature being what it is, some of these resolutions will undoubtedly fall by the wayside.

Building memberships at health and fitness clubs nationwide and the growing number of people of all ages taking to exercise are testament to the fact that many of us have come to recognize that our ability to enjoy life is directly related to how we feel.

Sadly, though, there are many people, who, regardless of their willpower to follow through on resolutions, simply can't improve their health without the help of others.

Indeed, the very lives of people who require a blood transfusion depend on the generosity of people they will never know, people who may live across town or in another time zone.

Because we live in a land with a long and proud tradition of self-reliance, we balk at the idea of relying on the good will of someone else, particularly for something as vital as our health. But for many infants, children, women and men, there is no choice.

For them, the more than 40,000 volunteers it takes each day to replenish our nation's fragile blood supply represent a lifeline.

The beginning of a new year is a time to take stock of who we are and where we'd like to go. It's a time when we pledge to strive for ideals that give life richer meaning.

And can there be a more noble idea than helping others who can't help themselves?

Take the time now and become a regular blood donor. Call 1-800-GIVE-LIFE.

You can be assured there is no more precious gift to give others than a chance at another beginning.

Arbor Day Foundation to give free trees

Ten free trees will be given to each person who joins The National Arbor Day Foundation during January 1995.

The free trees are part of the nonprofit Foundation's Trees for American campaign.

The ten trees are the Sugar Maple, White Flowering Dogwood, Pin Oak, White Pine, Red Maple, Birch, American Redbud, Silver Maple, Red Oak and Colorado Blue Spruce.

"These trees were selected to provide benefits every season of the year: lovely spring flowers, cool summer shade, spectacular autumn colors and winter berries and nesting sites for songbirds," John Rosenow, the Foundation's president, said.

Rebecca Williams

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between Feb. 1 and May 31 with enclosed planting instructions. The six- to 12-inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

Members also receive a subscription to the Foundation's bimonthly publication, Arbor Day, and The Tree Book with information about tree planting and care.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 contribution to Ten Free Trees, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410 by Jan. 31.

The Diamondhead Performing Arts Society opens its 1995 Season with "Last Call for Mardi Gras" featuring much of the finest talent on the coast. This spectacular show will be performed at the Diamondhead Country Club on Sunday, February 5 - 7:30 p.m.

Prepare to Mardi Gras! Coming to our stage is the best in entertainment from two highly acclaimed musical comedies, "Fat Tuesday" and "Last Call". Songs composed by Neil and Kitty Stallings - tops in talent - and performers' credits that read like a musical who's who. They have opened for the likes of Gladys Knight, Willie Nelson, Stevie Wonder and the Neville Brothers.

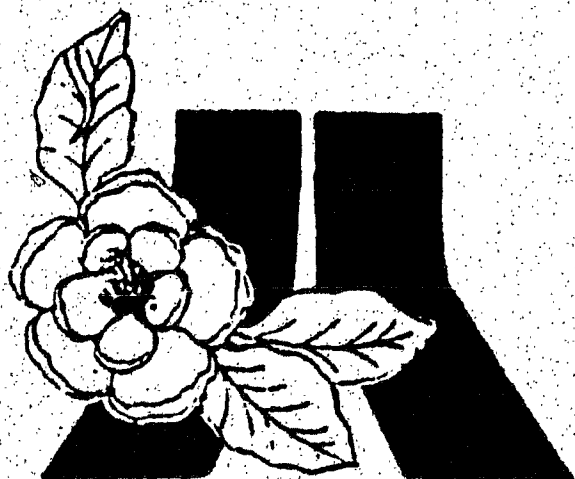

Tap your feet to tunes such as Jackson Square, Dancin', King Cake, and Gimme Some Gumbo from the hit show "Fat Tuesday". You won't sit still during this musical romp through New Orleans. "Last Call" mixes the magical musical sounds of the South - country, rock and roll, blue grass, gospel and spell binding Delta blues.

Neil's song writing credits include many of the songs in the musical comedy hit Fat Tuesday and the score for ETV's The Shellridge and Miss Judy; which won a silver medal for best score. His song, Before the River Runs Dry, was recorded by country artist, Dawnette Fawcette, and released nationally in 1993. Neil and Kitty first met in Jackson when Kitty joined Neil's group, La Fleur's Bluff Country Rangers. Audience members at Gulfport Little Theatre may remember Neil from The Boys Next Door. Other stage credits include Pump Boys and Dinettes and Annie Get Your Gun.

Audiences will remember Kitty most recently from Center Stage's A Coupla White Chicks Sittin' Around Talkin'. She has appeared in several musicals including Annie Get Your Gun, Pump Boys and Dinettes and the hit Fat Tuesday, which she also co-wrote with husband Neil. Kitty has been a professional performer for 18 years and made her national television debut July 1993 with a winning performance on the Nashville Network's Be a Star show. Kitty was voted "Best Actress," in the Sun Herald's Reader's Poll three years in a row.

What a great excuse to throw your cares away! Tickets for the performance are $12.50 for adults and $3.50 for students. Tickets may be purchased at Diamondhead Discount Drugs or at the door on the evening of the performance.

FISHIN' Y'ALL

By Jim Maness

It's time to go fishin' y'all. Well, fishin' buddies, I have great news to tell y'all. It seems a man was able to give me directions as to where to find one of the most sought after fish on the entire Gulf Coast.

This guy was in front of the Rice Pavilion in Gulfport tying down his rig after a day of fishing. When I asked him where to find the most sought after fish, he did not hesitate to give me what he called precisely accurate compass headings to put me in the exact location of the elusive fishin' hole I have been trying to find for years.

I am now gonna pass on the directions to all of the fishin' buddies. Launch on the public ramp at the Gulfport Harbor. Proceed out of the harbor till you get to the first channel marker in the ship channel. When you get to the channel marker take a compass heading of 390 degrees for 200 yards, then take a compass heading of 418 degrees for 100 yards and there it is — the fishin' hole where you can find the elusive file fish.

If any of the fishin' buddies can give me directions as to where to find the hole where I can catch the equally elusive breaded file fish let me know, and I will pass the information on to everybody.

The colder temperatures of the next few months will make finding holes on the water bottoms very important. Ya see, the colder temperatures will drive the trout into the deeper waters. This means you will need to look for spots where the water is at least six feet deep. This means you will need to find the deep spots in the bayous, river, canals and bays.

One of the best ways to locate a deep spot is with a depth finder. If Santa Fisherman didn't bring you a depth finder, look for the bends in a river or a bayou. Usually there is a hole scoured out by the current located on the outside of a bend. Another place where you can usually find a hole is on the immediate downstream side of where a smaller stream enters the main course of a river or canal.

The water coming out of the smaller stream is usually running faster than the water in the larger stream, so it cuts a path in the bottom of the larger stream at the spot where it enters the larger stream. Man, now you know all kinda stuff.

The reason I had to put all that smaller stream stuff on ya'll is because where a smaller stream enters the larger stream is usually the best place to catch fish during the winter. This is true no matter if you are trolling a bait behind the boat or if you place the "iron" on the bottom and work out your casting arm by casting your bait in all directions.

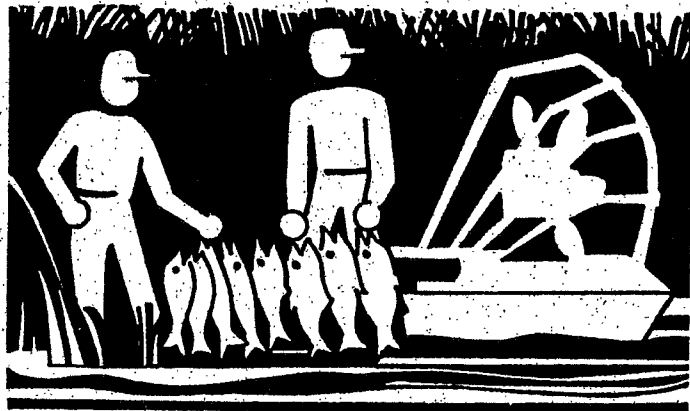

The choice of the type of bait that is best to use during the winter depends on the type of bait that the fish can find. Now, you might say that statement is nothing short of brilliant, and being a typically modest Turtle I'm gonna say: it is!

The reason for all this malarkey is, the fish feed on what is available during any particular time of the year. Bet you didn't know that? — ha. Anyway, the only food that seems to be available during the month of January is the cacaho minnow. So, either the cacaho minnow or any of the plastic stuff that resembles a cacaho minnow should work.

Assuming, of course, that the fish are hungry at that time, you are in the right place at the right time, and the Saints win the Superbowl (that would be a real miracle).

Anyway, on with the bait story. If you use live cacaho minnows you will need to fish them either on the bottom or at least 5 or 6 feet under a cork. If you fish them on the bottom, it is best to use a rig with a sliding sinker.

This type of rig allows the minnow to move around naturally, which makes it more attractive to the fish.

One more piece of advice on bait selection. If you use plastic baits you might try the darker colors if it is cloudy. The lighter colors work "more better" when the sun is shining.

Here is a second "one more" piece of advice on the type of artificial baits working the best. Beetles with the green body and a fire tail: Thin Fin 1/5 oz. in the naturalistic perch color; gold spoons. That's three pieces of advice, but I am only gonna charge you for one.

There will be no third "one more." Aren't ya glad?

Since the esters are better than outstanding right now, I am gonna have to lay another recipe on y'all for oysters. Here 'tis:

Lay two dozen drained oysters in a 9-inch pie pan. Pour over them one-half cup of melted butter or margarine to which you have mixed in one-quarter teaspoon of garlic puree and three to four drops of liquid smoke.

Place in broiler till the edges of the oysters curl up good, about 5 minutes. Serve with hot French bread.

This week's wonderful wise words: Keep a sharp lookout on the weather 'cause the men with the Ouija board can mess you up big time plenty in a hurry during January.

Doya think people at the Rice Pavilion know how to read a compass, Turtle?

Yellow Jackets sting SSC Rocks 77-67

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
The 19th ranked St. Martin Yellow Jackets visited the SSC Gym on Friday night and came away with a win; however, it was a win that they worked hard for.

The Yellow Jackets defeated the Rocks 77-67.

In junior varsity action, the Rocks fell 56-47 to the Yellow Jackets.

The first period ended 16-11 in favor of the Rocks. The Rocks hit the first shot of the period before St. Martin reeled off 6 straight points to pull within three.

The Rocks struggled during the second period as they saw their lead diminish to a seven-point deficit for them. Correy Gex led the Rocks at the half with 11 points while Matt Kopfler and Clay Williams had 6 and 5 points, respectively.

The Rocks never regained the lead in the second half. They were outscored 12-8 in the third period.

The Rocks outscored the Yellow Jackets 13-10 in the fourth period as Mike Magee hit a three-pointer at the buzzer but it just wasn't enough.

Correy Gex and Clay Williams each finished with 13 points and Williams had four blocked shots. Matt Kopfler added 10 points in the loss.

Coach Jerry Spell added, "We had poor execution tonight to go along with poor mental preparedness. We had no leadership on the floor. In spite of all that, give the credit to the St. Martin players because they came to play and had the desire to win."

With the loss the JV Rocks fell to 10-4 on the season.

In varsity action, the Rocks fell to the 19th ranked Yellow

Jackets 77-67 after a "hard fought game."

Nate Middleton hit the opening shot of the game for the Rocks. It was a three-pointer and that would describe the way the Rocks would play the first half. They dismantled the second half as quickly as they warmed in the first half.

Vince Moran hit a jumper with 41 seconds left to let the Rocks enjoy a 15-13 first period lead.

Moran was hot in the second period as the senior forward scored 8 points.

He hit a three-pointer with 6:56 to go in the half to give the Rocks the lead back at 18-16.

With 2:09 to go in the half David McGuinness hit a three-pointer to extend the Rocks' lead to 35-28.

At the end of the first half, it was the Rocks on top 42-37. David McGuinness had a great first half with 8 points coming off two 3's. He also had three boards, 2 assists and 1 steal. Nate Middleton had 7 points coming off two 3's and 4 assists.

Terry Lawyer and Vince Moran had 8 points each while Brandon Benoit had 9 points and 4 boards.

The Rocks were poised to go back out and take it to St. Martin; however, that was not meant to be. They dismantled in the second half.

The Rocks scored with 7:14 to go in the third and then didn't score again till the 3:12 mark left in the third period. This period saw the Yellow Jackets take over a 55-49 lead that they would not relinquish.

The fourth period belonged to St. Martin and the final score was 77-67.

David McGuinness scored 12 points on the night and led the Rocks with 8 rebounds. Nate Middleton scored 9 points, dished out 5 assists, and had 5 steals. Brandon Benoit scored 15 points and dished out 5 assists to go with 4 steals. Terry Lawyer added 17 points to lead the Rocks in that category. Vince Moran contributed 10 points before fouling out in the fourth period.

Coach Jay Ladner stated, "We played real good ball in the first half. We executed well, played with intensity, and created turnovers. We came out in the second half and played the direct opposite. At crunch time, we didn't make the plays. The credit goes to St. Martin. They were a well-coached ballclub."

With the loss, the Rocks fall to 14-9 on the season.

The Rocks will play host to the Hancock Hawks in a Division 8 Class 4A contest in the Brother Peter Gym on Friday.
